

TEACHING KITCHEN MODEL

The teaching Kitchen Model is a framework created and tested by Harvard Medical School. It is a 3 months program that includes a culinary medicine workshop, a health workshop, and individual support. Biomedical tests are taken before and after the intervention.

